Steve Curiel, Principal

Starting the 2018-19 school year could not be better. I say this because over summer we were able to help 25 of our students get jobs. Seeing people get jobs is one of the best rewards we can experience as a school. I know our staff of teachers, counselors, and job developer work hard to that end. Each student has a unique story of why they came to our school, what challenges they overcame to complete their education, and how they got their first job in a new career. We value each student and their story.

My congratulations go out to the recently employed students of HBAS: Andrea Medina - Pharmacy Technician, Ashley Brink - Medical Biller, Audrey Ngo - Pharmacy Technician, Brittany Mitchell - Medical Assistant, Carissa Sebastian - Pharmacy Technician, Ciera Romanosky - Medical Assistant, Jakob Larson - Medical Assistant, Janelle Byer -
